

PRESS RELEASE

DIGITAL VALUE: IMPORTANT CONTRACT FOR OVER 16 MILLION EUROS ON A SAP PLATFORM AND STRENGTHENING OF ITS PRESENCE ON THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT MARKET

Rome, 3 June 2020

Digital Value announces that it has been awarded, through its subsidiary Italware, an executive contract for an important Central Public Administration Company, concerning the supply of a new application platform, aimed at the rebuilding of accounting systems for the PA, in order to create , a new integrated accounting management system.

This contract, which is based on SAP technology, strengthens the development of the partnership of the Digital Value Group Companies with this world leader in ERP systems and follows the Gold Partner SAP certification, already mentioned in the press release of 21 January 2020.

Digital Value, through its subsidiaries, increases its presence in the Central Public Administration market to support the country system, helping it in its digitization process.

The value of the contract is higher than Euro 16 million and includes both software licenses and the provision of training and specialist product support services, which will be delivered and invoiced in the current year.
