

PRESS RELEASE

DIGITAL VALUE CYBER SECURITY HAS STARTED OFF

The Digital Value Group acquires control of A-76, to strengthen the skills and services offered in the Cyber Security market.

Rome, July 2023 – Digital Value S.p.A. (Ticker DGV) reference operator in the ICT infrastructure sector in Italy with consolidated revenues of € 708.5 million in the fiscal year at 31 December 2022, announces the acquisition of control of A-76, innovative start up specialized in the field of cyber security, previously controlled by TT Tecnosistemi Spa Benefit Corporation.

Following this operation, A-76 will be renamed Digital Value Cyber Security.

The initiative will complete the portfolio of ICT infrastructure security solutions with innovative prevention services (penetration test and cyber threat intelligence), monitoring and management of the most complex cyber risks through the Security Operation Center (SOC).

With the increase of cyber threats and the growing need for corporate information protection, Digital Value has recognized the importance of accelerating the integration of the activities already carried out within the Group to strengthen and improve the offer to its customers.

Massimo Rossi, President and CEO of Digital Value, commented: "The first objective of Digital Value has always been to offer to its customers the best solutions for investment needs in ICT infrastructure. Today more than ever, cybersecurity is a market demand that is increasingly being invested in. With this operation Digital Value enriches its offer of services and improves its positioning thanks to specialized resources and cutting-edge tools for the security of data and infrastructure of our customers".

Silvano Gori, CEO of Digital Value Cyber Security said: "We have been active in the cyber security field since 2019 and we are witnessing an increasingly high level of cyber-attacks. Combining our skills with those existing in Digital Value not only makes us stronger, but also sets us apart as an innovative platform that can offer a complete portfolio of cyber security services. This gives us a significant competitive advantage and allows us to expand our market presence, winning new customers and maintaining the trust of existing ones."
